

Charter (DRAFT)

California Independent Chief Information Officers

Charter Last Modified: September 8, 2011

Established by State Chief Information Officer: September 2006

Current Status: Active

Chair: CDFA Agency Information Officer

Vice-chair: Elected

Frequency: Second Wednesday, beginning of every quarter

Scope:

This charter defines the scope, membership, mission, and objectives of the California Independent Chief Information Officers.

Membership:

The California Independent Chief Information Officers includes Chief Information Officers (or equivalent) from All Other General Government Entities as defined by the California Technology Agency Secretary.

Mission:

The California Independent Chief Information Officers advises the Chair on mission, vision, and values of the State of California.

Objectives:

- Discuss proposed Information Technology policy, standards and practices
- Liaison to Technology Agency
- Share information from Information Technology boards, committees, and teams
- Participate in workgroup and committee activities of Information Technology Council Executive Committee
- Respond to requests from the California Technology Agency Secretary